PACEMAKER DISCLOSURE

Does the decedent have a pacemaker or other implanted radioactive device? Please check one:

Yes No

If you answered "Yes", this (or these) devices MUST BE REMOVED prior to the cremation. Pacemakers can explode during the cremation process and cause injury to crematory personnel or severe damage to the cremation chamber. There is NO CHARGE for City Funeral Service personnel to remove a pacemaker.

DEATH CERTIFICATES

How many copies of the certificate of death do you want us to order for you? You will need these certificates – also called certified copies or transcripts – to settle insurance claims, close or transfer bank accounts, auto or boat transfer of title, Veteran's claims, and other estate matters.

Death certificates cost $15.00 per copy in New York City. Honorably discharged veterans receive three (3) free copies in New York City only. Proof of honorable discharge – a DD-214 – is required.

Outside New York City, death certificates are $10.00 per copy. The cost of death certificates in other states varies by state and county.
